BELFOR Wins Fire Prevention Award Reno's Michelle Turner receives highest civilian honor

JANUARY 2018

BELFOR Reno, Nevada's Michelle Turner was awarded the highest honor that a civilian can receive from the Fire Prevention Association of Nevada, FPAN. Michelle was proud to accept the Silver Sparky award at the FPAN Holiday Breakfast. The inscription: Michelle Turner, BELFOR Property Restoration. For outstanding contributions to fire prevention and life safety for the citizens of Nevada.

Michelle was additionally honored to be asked to co-present the inaugural Golden Sparky, the highest award that can be given to a fire professional, to the Sparks Fire Marshal during the City Council meeting.

Michelle is active in fire prevention throughout the year. This past holiday season she worked with the fire department to promote Christmas tree safety. In a letter written to Regional Manager Roger Kirkham, the Fire Marshal wrote, "I wanted to thank you and BELFOR for providing the burn cells. Michelle was a critical component in having this be a successful event. Michelle is a tireless advocate of fire safety and represents BELFOR in a commendable way."

BELFOR RENO AND LAKE TAHOE, NEVADA

All of BELFOR's local managers are area natives and they stay very involved in our community, volunteering for great local organizations like RIMS, Northern Nevada Claims Association, Community Associations Institute, National Apartment Association, and the Boy Scouts of America, to name just a few.
